Dear Jim:

I would like to commend your team at John Henry Roofing who replaced the roofs on my home and garage at Exeter Street in October 2015.

While John Henry Roofing replaced other roofing parts of my residence in the past that have held up well through many hard rains and difficult winters, I am particularly gratified by the workmanship and craftsmanship provided on this newest project.

Added to the excellent work was the professionalism of the team who were always courteous, punctual, and helping in giving advice when needed and responsible in keeping their work clean both after hours and while working.

Another key factor was the cost of the roofing which came in on the agreed upon price. It was fair and consistent all through the time of the project. There were no surprises upon completion.

I commend the work of John Henry Roofing and would recommend without hesitation your company to any homeowner looking for top of the line roofing or roof replacement.

With thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Windsor
